

The West Springfield Council on Aging & Senior Center's Mission & Core Values

To enhance the quality of life of adults regardless of age, income, race, ethnicity, religion or sexual orientation by offering services & recreational opportunities.

We agree to the following core values in our workplace:

Strive to excel in providing client centered services to seniors, families, caregivers & others;

Foster respect for a person's right to self-determination; assisting people in their decision making by providing all available options and choices;

Foster respect for diversity in culture, ethnicity, religion, creed, belief and/or sexual orientation; and,

Support each other in order to promote a harmonious workplace.
